Four years ago I was dead broke living and working out of my parents garage in New Zealand trying to start my own consulting business.

I cold called, door knocked, attended networking events and none of it worked for me. I was rejected, humiliated, forced to draw up proposals that nobody even looked at and ended up depressed with nothing to show for it but a $60,000 debt.

I didn't understand why the advice that was given to me in all of the books and all of the websites online didn't work. My girlfriend left me because I couldn't even afford to take her out to dinner and worked 15 hours a day stressed out of my mind with a pay grade lower than a 14 year on his first day at McDonalds.

I tried everything to get clients and none of it worked. Then one day I thought to myself: "Instead of begging people for 5 minutes of their time and going to them, what if there was a way to make them come to me instead?".

I went back to the drawing board and stayed up days and nights on end figuring out ways where I could completely flip the model and make clients come to me instead.

Then one day I figured it out!

I went to work applying this new method for attracting and winning high value clients and it worked like magic. 1 client, 2 clients, 3 clients and then it caught fire and I had more clients than I could possibly handle and had to actually STOP marketing so I could catch up on the work.

Over the next 12 months I made $100,000. The next year - $500,000. The next $1,200,000. The next - $2,400,000 and now this year (2016) I have already made $6,000,000 and we're only 6 months in.

I moved out of my parents garage in New Zealand and moved to a 28th floor apartment in Manhattan. I'm from a poor family in a small suburb in New Zealand... This was BIG money!

People started noticing my results and talking about my story and before long I had people asking me to teach them how to start their own consulting businesses and get high paying clients of their own.

At first I said "No" because I honestly didn't believe that anybody else could do what I was doing. I thought I was unique and that nobody else would be able to make it work. But this one guy Stanley just wouldn't give up and he was consistent as hell! He would email me 2-3 times per day telling me he wanted to learn my methods and that he was even willing to pay me.

After a few months of non-stop messages I gave in and decided to try teaching my methods to Stanley. I didn't even think it would work for him but he begged me to do it... We jumped on Skype calls twice per week and I taught him my process from start to finish.

Within three weeks I couldn't believe it... Stanley got his first $10,000 client. I almost fell off my chair! Stanley went from knowing NOTHING about business or consulting and within three weeks he picked up his very first client for $10,000.

I wondered if this could be replicated again so I accepted five more people and showed them how to do it and then BAM - they started getting clients too! Then I started working with more people, the groups grew from 10 to 20 to 30 and I kept teaching them my same methods and they kept getting results.

Fast Forward to this current day and I now have 136 consultants making 6-figure incomes AND 9 consultants making million dollar incomes from my advice and trainings.

It's honestly hard to believe how this happened so fast. I went from being depressed and broke working out of my parents garage in New Zealand to the skyline of Manhattan and over $10,000,000 in 4 years flat. Add to that the fact that I've created 9 millionaires and 136 6-figure consultants at the same time.

So what is it about my consulting methods that are so damn good?

How have I created extreme liquid wealth for myself and my clients in such a short time?

Well it all comes down to relentless focus on 3 Key things...

We live in an ADD world where there is too much information and too many distractions. While others have tried to do it all - I have tried to do less. In the modern world it's more about what you ignore rather than what you do.

While others burn themselves out trying to do 52 different things I focus on 3.

Want to know what these 3 key things are?

I spent the past week putting together a free training for you showing you exactly how I got started and grew my consulting business into the millions. I literally pull back the curtain and reveal it all including the "3 Key Things" that have been the foundation of my success and my students success.

In this free training I show you step-by-step how to get started, how to pick your niche, how to craft your consulting offer, how to get clients to come to you instead of you chasing them and more...

The lessons in this training are the bedrock of my success and my clients success and I'm sure they will serve you in the same way they have served us.

Headline: Advice For Consultants Struggling To Get Clients - From A Consultant Who Has Too Many

Body copy:

Are you a consultant, coach or service provider struggling to get clients?

Or maybe you're getting clients but deep down you know you're scraping the barrel...

Here's some sobering advice:

Hi my name is Sam Ovens and I'm a consultant who currently makes $750,000 /month and who has made more than $10,000,000 since starting 4 years ago.

When I look at the consulting marketplace today I see these three problems that are widespread and suffocating most consultants:

1). Generalism:

Most consultants are not "consultants". They are glorified human bodies for hire at a negotiable rate. Most consultants don't have a niche and can't define who their ideal client is. They are generalists seeking any type of work in exchange for some money. If you want to make serious money as a consultant you MUST have a niche!

2). No predictable way to generate appointments:

Most consultants operate by what I call "Hope Marketing". It goes like this: 9 AM they arrive at their office get down on one knee and pray to God that today the phone rings and somebody will contact them with some work. They operate their business using a strategy less successful than a drunken bet in Las Vegas and gamble their own future and their families future.

If you want to be a successful consultant you MUST have a predictable and proven method to reliably generate appointments on demand.

3). No predictable way to convert appointments into clients:

Most consultants change their approach with every new appointment they have with potential clients. Every single appointment they operate "off the cuff" and say something new with little regard to what has and hasn't worked in the past. They have no idea how many appointments they need to generate a client and (once again) operate their business and families destiny with spine chilling chance.

If you want to make decent money as a consultant you must have a proven rinse and repeat process to conduct appointments and convert people into paying clients.

Are you making any of these three mistakes?

The truth is that if you are making just one of these mistakes your business has less than 6-months left before it gets totally wiped out. The world is changing and there is no place in this world for sloppy consultants anymore. A new breed of consultant has emerged and is powering through taking your clients and eating your lunch.

If you don't change your ways you will get wiped out. However, if you want to change your ways and join the winning side of consultants in this new marketplace...

I Have Good News!

I just put together a free training which shows you exactly how I started my consulting business from scratch and grew it to $750,000 /month in just 4 years.

Here's what you'll discover:

- 1). How to pick your niche and craft your high ticket offer
- 2). How to generate appointments on demand 24/7/365 with predictability
- 3). How to convert appointments into high paying clients without penny pinching and endless follow up games of cat and mouse.

This free training has created 9 Millionaire Consultants in the past two years alone and has the power and potential to do the same for you.

You can register here for free:- <http://www.samovens.com/Consulting-Webinar>

It's a new world out there today and I can give you the tools to fight off this new breed of consultant who has been terrorizing your income - however - if you don't do anything about it please remember in 6 months time when you're wiped out and humiliated that I did warn you.
