

Reasoning by Analogy

Reasoning by Analogy is when you solve an argument by relating it to a common saying, belief, trend, the way its being done now or has been done before or an example.

Reasoning by First Principles

Reasoning by First Principles is when you boil down an argument to it's most fundamental truths and then build up from there using deductive logic.